Judges Named For The Miss Appomattox Pageant

Five prominent judges from varied fields of interest will serve on a panel to select the new Miss Appomattox April 3 when the pageant will be held at 8 p.m. at Appomattox County High School Auditorium.

They will score points which will determine the winner as the lovely young women compete in various divisions.

The personable young woman selected MISS APPOMATTOX at climax of the pageant sponsored by the Woman's Club of Appomattox will gain the right to continue a climb toward added honors in the Miss Virginia Pageant to be conducted in Roanoke.

The winner of the Miss Virginia Pageant will carry the state banner to the national Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey, to seek the crown and fame as the new Miss America.

Serving on the five-member panel of judges at Appomattox County High School will be Mrs. J. B. Forehand, Jr., the former Dona Pillow who was Miss Lynchburg in 1972 and Miss Virginia in 1972-73. She graduated from Lynchburg College in 1971 with a B.A. degree in Elementary Education. She taught the 4th grade at Brookville Elementary School in Lynchburg for one year. Her musical training consists of five years voice lessons and six years piano. She was the featured vocalist for the Freddie Lee Orchestra in Roanoke for one year - 1974. She is presently employed by The Fidelity National Bank in Lynchburg in the Public Relations Department. She is married to James B. Forehand, Jr., President of Forehand, Inc., and they reside in Lynchburg.

The four other judges are:

Mr. William F. S. Gresham who is a past president and Presentation Chairman of the Lynchburg Community Concert Series, also a church soloist and television, radio, and recital singer of many years. He was made a District Manager of the Equitable Life Assurance Society in 1944 and won the first award ever given by the Lynchburg Association of Life Underwriters for "The Insurance Man of the Year." He is a trustee of the Academy of Music in Lynchburg, and a charter member and board member and president of the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center. Mr. Gresham has been active in the civic, music, and church life of Lynchburg.

Mrs. William F. S. Gresham who is a past District President of the Alice Kyle District of Women's Clubs. She served three terms as chairman of the Poetry Workshop of the Lynchburg Woman's Club. She is trustee of the Virginia Old Dominion Sympony Council and presently is Vice-President of the Lynchburg Woman's Club. She is a past president of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs Critics Landscape Council, also a co-director of Landscape Design School for two years at V.P.I. in Blacksburg. She was Editor of the Golden Anniversary Anthology, Poetry Society of Virginia, published in 1975, and President of the Poetry Society 1972-75. She is very active in civic, club work, church, music, and gardening.

Mr. William F. S. Gresham

Mrs. J. B. Forehand, Jr.

Mrs. L. J. Braun

Mrs. William F. S. Gresham

Mr. Phillip J. Meador

Mrs. L. J. Braun, another of the judges, and her husband, who is a pilot for Piedmont Airlines, reside in Montvale. She has been in Bowling Green, Kentucky and attended college at Southeast Missouri State and then accepted a position as stewardess with Piedmont Airlines. She flew for a total of four years, three based in Norfolk and one year in Knoxville, Tennessee. She met and married her husband while still flying, but quit four years ago to become a full time housewife.

The fifth judge, Mr. Phillip J. Meador is presently the owner of SOMEPLACE ELSE, a woman's apparel store in Roanoke. He was sales manager and merchandise manager for J. C. Penny Company in various locations. He has a B.S. degree in Marketing Economics and Psycology from Marshall University. Mr. Meador is active in civic affairs and sports. He is married and the father of four daughters, ages 19, 17, 15 and 13.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS TO PRESENT PLAY

Members of the Independent Study Group at Appomattox Elementary School are presently involved in preparing for the presentation of a play concerning the American flag and the Betsy Ross Legend. The play will be presented Friday, April 2 at 10 a.m. in the AES Auditorium.

Sally Coleman and J. C. Rogers, third year students, will be in costume for the play based on the Betsy Ross Legend, "A New Flag For A New Country". Laura Walton and Bobby Carter will play the roles of Betsy Ross and General George Washington. There are 22 students participating in the group during 1975-76.

MEMORIAL YOUTH TO SEE "THE HIDING PLACE"

Youth of the Memorial United Methodist Church will go to Lynchburg this Sunday evening to see the Billy Graham movie, THE HIDING PLACE, the story of Corrie Ten Boom and a Dutch family that hid many Jews in their home when Hitler was putting them in the concentration camps.

Tickets have been purchased, they will go by bus, and the first 50 Memorial young people and their guests to ask for tickets will be given them by the church. The movie is at 7 p.m. at the Plaza Theatre this Sunday evening, and next week. Those with tickets will leave by church bus on Sunday, April 4 at 5:30 p.m. to get there in plenty of time.
